

SPAIN GIVEN GOOD ADVICE

Should Yield Before
It is Too Late.

The European Powers Will Not Aid Her.

Her Struggle With the United States is Ridiculed as "a Grotosque Absurdity."

WASHINGTON, May 10.—As a result of the Spanish reverse at Manila, leading members of the diplomatic corps, representing some of the most influential of the great powers of Europe, have officially exchanged views on the opportunity of a movement, dictated by the most friendly spirit and in the interest of peace, toward urging upon Spain the futility of further prosecuting the war and inducing her to sue for peace on the basis of the relinquishment of Cuba; the promise of a war indemnity and the occupation of Manila by Admiral Dewey until the war indemnity is paid.

It was stated tonight by one of the most influential members of the diplomatic corps, an ambassador, that such a step by Spain was the logical result of the crushing Spanish defeat at Manila, and that Spain herself should be the first to recognize it as a measure for her own self-protection and self-preservation. Her best friends in the family of nations ought to urge it upon Spain, this Ambassador said, for it was now patent to the world that Spain's military and naval strength was grotesquely inadequate to cope with forces of the United States, and Spanish pride would ultimately be humbled into peace on far more severe terms than she might be able to obtain now.

While expressing this view with much positiveness, it was put forward only as a tentative proposition, and not as a move which the European powers had actually begun.

At the same time it indicates a new trend of feeling among leading foreign representatives in Washington. This discussion has been official and without advice from their own governments, but it is said that Spain's plight is such at the present moment that a movement on the other side may begin at any time towards inducing Spain to make terms for closing the war. In such a move, it is pointed out, those powers which have been friendly to Spain, particularly Austria and France, might well join in urging her to sue for peace before it is too late. It is said that the nations most friendly to Spain might suffer almost as much as Spain herself by a prolongation of the war and the ultimate annihilation of Spain.

At the same time, those powers most friendly to the United States, particularly Great Britain and Russia, would, it is believed, join in any movement promising to restore the peace of the world.

It is stated with positiveness as several of the embassies and legations today that intervention in the sense of staying the course of the United States was no longer being discussed, and that only such intervention as would induce Spain to sue for peace was possible under the existing condition of affairs.

MARCHING ORDERS.

Regulars at Chickamauga Are Being Rushed to Tampa.

CHICKAMAUGA NATIONAL PARK, Ga., May 10.—Major General Brook, commanding the United States regular provisional army corps at Chickamauga Park, today received orders from the war department directing him to send all the cavalry and infantry troops now in camp at Chickamauga Park, about 6000 in all, to Tampa without delay.

The order is accompanied with instructions to provide the men with a full supply of ammunition for sixty days.

There are five regiments of infantry now in camp, the second, seventh, eighth, twelfth and sixteenth, all of which are ordered to Tampa under command of Colonel G. V. Henry and Colonel A. R. Chaffee.

Two regiments of cavalry, the third and sixth, will at once proceed to Tampa under General S. S. Sumner.

The second cavalry, under Colonel Hunt, has been ordered to Mobile. The first and tenth cavalry will go to New Orleans.

General Brooke and staff remain here to assist in the organization of the volunteer army, should it be ordered here.

The signal corps has also been ordered to remain here until further orders.

The medical corps of each regiment was today provided with medical supplies for sixty days. All recruits will be ordered to report to Tampa, New Orleans and Mobile. A large number arrived today and were provided with the necessary equipments.

Owing to the unexpected orders to move, received today, General Brooke made a hurried reorganization of the infantry force, annulling the division he had formed.

An order immediately followed, forming the Fifth, Twelfth and Sixteenth regiments of infantry into a brigade to be commanded by Colonel G. V. Henry, Fred A. Smith, Assistant Adjutant General, and Lieutenant Stafford, of the Eighth regiment, Brigade Quartermaster. This brigade is ordered to proceed at once "fully equipped for field service" to Tampa, and report to the General commanding at that point.

The same order also formed the Second and Seventh Infantry into a brigade,

Brigadier General A. R. Chaffee in command, who is also ordered to proceed as early as possible with his brigade to Tampa.

Quartermaster General Lee stated to-night that he has everything in his department in readiness for the departure of the troops at once. In reply to a query of the Associated Press tonight, Adjutant General Sheridan stated that before Friday night all the troops will have been moved south.

TRANSPORT SHIPS.

The Pekin and Australis Will be Promptly Dispatched.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 10.—The steamer City of Pekin will be turned over to the navy department tomorrow morning. After going on the drydock she will be loaded with supplies for Admiral Dewey's fleet. There will be stores for the vessels of the Asiatic squadron and ammunition to take the place of the powder and shell that did such good work in Manila harbor. The navy department is not doing anything about coal, however, and the supposition is that Dewey has all he wants. It is known that there was a large amount of coal stored at Manila and this must now be in Dewey's hands.

So far no provision has been made to transport troops on the Pekin. At the navy pay office it is given out that the navy is fitting her up as a supply ship and is doing nothing for the accommodation of troops on board, though it is expected that before she sails the army officials will arrange for the transportation of her on a portion of the force assembled here.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 10.—A detail of army and navy officers visited Pacific street dock today and boarded the steamship Australis, on which the government has secured an option as a transport for troops to the Philippines. The steamer is in splendid condition and can be pressed into service at short notice.

The steamship City of Sydney arrived from Panama and way ports before day-break, and from the manner in which she was given quick dispatch by the quarantine and custom house officers, it is evident that she also has been chartered to go to Manila and will be placed on the berth immediately.

SAN FRANCISCO'S LUCK.

Nearly 1,000,000 Rations to Be Purchased There.

CHICAGO, May 10.—A special from Washington says: An order was sent out from the war department today to Captain Baldwin, assistant commissioner of subsistence at San Francisco, directing the immediate purchase of nearly 1,000,000 rations for the military expedition to the Philippines.

The administration is unwilling to take time for having the subsistence supplies sent across the continent, and the order was therefore given to have the supplies bought in San Francisco to avoid delay.

The government has not stated when the expedition will embark for Manila, but in case the ships can be equipped with the necessary supplies for the voyage the start will probably be made before Monday.

LACKS CONFIRMATION.

Report That the Montserrat Has Run the Blockade.

MADRID, May 10.—4 p. m.—A dispatch received here from Havana this afternoon says the Spanish steamer Montserrat which, with a valuable cargo, and a large sum of money intended for Havanna escaped the United States fleet and entered the port of Cienfuegos, has again run the blockade of the American squadron and has entered the port of Havanna in safety. It is claimed here that this proves that the blockade of the Cuban ports is ineffectual.

The Spanish mail steamer Montserrat, which is alleged to have run the blockade at Havanna appeared to have reached Cienfuegos on April 27th with 1,000 Spanish soldiers, $100,000 in silver and 15 guns of large calibre, in addition to a very valuable cargo, including a quantity of munitions. The Spaniards claim the Montserrat was sighted by an American man-of-war which fired on her. The mail steamer, it is alleged, mounting guns as an auxiliary cruiser, returned the fire and eventually reached Cienfuegos.

So many false reports have been given out in Madrid recently that American confirmation of the arrival of the Montserrat at Havanna will be required before the story of the blockade running is accepted as truth.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 10.—Admiral Miller intends to raise his flag on one of the vessels here—probably the Monterey—unless orders from Washington interfere. The Monterey is the only vessel here with accommodations for a flag officer.

Twenty men were passed by the naval recruiting offices today and all were sent up to the navy yard to the independence. The office at present is shipping only first class machinists, first class firemen, seamen and ordinary seamen. As the Charleston will take away nearly all the available men when she is fully commissioned and the Philadelphia and Yorktown will both need full crews, it is expected that before long the recruiting office will be shipping all classes of men.

A MODERN MIRACLE.

Speech Suddenly Restored as the Result of Accident.

STOCKTON, May 10.—The Mail this evening has an account of an accident which happened to "Babe Bean," the mysterious lady who wears male attire. A runaway team ran into her buggy two miles from Sonora. The tongue of the wagon struck her and she was thrown from her buggy.

"Babe Bean" sent a dispatch today to a friend of hers in Stockton stating that she is overjoyed at the accident, because it resulted in the complete restoration of her power of speech.

AN UNWELCOME SUGGESTION

Spain's Fleet May

Slip Off

By Way of the Suez Canal.

No News Yet Received From Commodore Sampson. Plans Changed.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—It is hard to tell whether the naval officers were relieved or disappointed by the news that came late this afternoon to both the navy and state departments to the effect that the Spanish flying squadron had arrived at Cadiz, Spain. The safety of the Oregon from attack is now completely assured and the way is clear for military operations in Cuba without running the risk of having the occupying army's line of communication cut off. On the other hand it is believed that no enduring peace can be secured until the Spanish navy has been destroyed, and it now appears that to do this our sailors must make up their minds to go after the Spanish, a task very much more difficult than that of meeting them near our own shores.

It was suggested by some of the members of the war board that there was just a possibility that the Spanish squadron might take a quick passage into the Pacific through the Suez canal and attack Dewey at Manila. It is said, contrary to the common understanding, that the Suez canal is open to warships of belligerent powers, so if the Spanish choose to take this course they will have a long start of any pursuing fleet from our side of the Atlantic. It is scarcely believed, however, that the Spanish are willing to take the great risk of exposing to our attack their own home ports by the withdrawal of so considerable a proportion of their naval strength as would be required to overmatch Dewey.

NO NEWS FROM SAMPSON.

Nothing was heard from Sampson today but there is a confident expectation that interesting news will be coming from his squadron within the next twenty-four hours. Whether this means an attack on Porto Rico or not, cannot be learned.

One effect of the retreat of the Spanish fleet has been to hasten even more the preparations already under full headway for the dispatching of military expeditions to Cuba. It also has caused a complete change in the concentration plans. Time is now believed to be the great factor.

There is no longer opportunity to indulge in extensive drilling and practice maneuvering. The regular army troops do not need these and are to be thrown at once into the fray. Many of the regiments have entered the volunteer service and feel to be sufficiently trained from a military point of view to follow the regulars immediately and the department indicated its purpose today of dispatching these volunteer troops directly to the gulf coast for shipment instead of sending them to Chincas.

The president's voice was completely drowned. When he finally obtained a hearing, the president, Marquis Vega de Armijo, requested Senator Salmeron to withdraw the censure. Senator Salmeron refused, whereupon the president threatened to name him thrice if he continued his attacks upon the throne.

As a result of this censure and of the persistent monarchist interruptions, Senator Salmeron was compelled to辞职.

Senor Sagasta, the premier, then arose and directed that any one trying to sow discord among the Spaniards with the nation during this national struggle was unworthy of the name of Spaniard.

Senator Salmeron abdicated: "I am a good Spaniard."

This declaration was greeted with monarchist shouts of "no, no, out with him!" Senor Sagasta appealed to the patriotism of the members and prayed the house to vote the "minds as necessary to conduct the war." His appeal was greeted with the general cry "We will vote immediately."

Senor Silveira, leader of the dissident conservatives, said his party would abstain from further discussion and was ready to vote the urgent war funds immediately, but he claimed the right to debate the other budget as such a measure.

MADRID, May 10.—2:30 p. m.—In the chamber of deputies today Catalonian deputies strongly protested against the proclamation of martial law in Barcelona. There have been no disorders there. The Minister of the interior, Senor Capdevila, replied that the authorities of Barcelona undoubtedly had good reasons for their action.

Thereupon the Catalonian deputies declared that they would postpone their intended interpolation of the minister of war "until a proper government had been formed."

A Valencia deputy declared the Captain General of Valencia had threatened the newspapers, saying he would break up their forms if they printed matter attacking the government.

MADRID, May 10.—Midnight.—The chamber has definitely adopted the war credit.

The riotous demonstration at Lupio began on Sunday. The mob leaders demanded a reduction in the price of bread, which the local authorities conceded. Today the rioters attacked the carabineros in their barracks and also attacked the prison.

The police fired on the mob, killing several persons and wounding a number of others.

The workmen of Creva, near Lugo, numbering several thousand, struck work today and a fight occurred with the carabineros. The Duke and Duchess of Saxe-Meiningen were driving today through Lupio, when they found themselves between the rioters and the carabineros as the latter fired a volley. The Duke and Duchess were not hurt, but a dozen of the rioters fell. The ducal party returned here at a gallop.

Rome, May 10.—A state of siege has been proclaimed in the province of Florence and at Livorno, Pisa, Siena, Massa and Grosseto and also in the town of Spezia, the naval port of Spezia being excepted from the decree.

At Modena a crowd of women and children proceeded to the town hall demanding food. They were dispersed by the police and the crowd then began breaking street lamps and tried to sack a provision store. The proprietor shot one of the rioters with a gun, which increased the disturbance.

At Messina a crowd of women and children proceeded to the town hall demanding food. They were dispersed by the police and the crowd then began breaking street lamps and tried to sack a provision store. The proprietor shot one of the rioters with a gun, which increased the disturbance.

At Naples a crowd of women and children proceeded to the town hall demanding food. They were dispersed by the police and the crowd then began breaking street lamps and tried to sack a provision store. The proprietor shot one of the rioters with a gun, which increased the disturbance.

At Palermo a crowd of women and children proceeded to the town hall demanding food. They were dispersed by the police and the crowd then began breaking street lamps and tried to sack a provision store. The proprietor shot one of the rioters with a gun, which increased the disturbance.

At Rome a crowd of women and children proceeded to the town hall demanding food. They were dispersed by the police and the crowd then began breaking street lamps and tried to sack a provision store. The proprietor shot one of the rioters with a gun, which increased the disturbance.

At Turin a crowd of women and children proceeded to the town hall demanding food. They were dispersed by the police and the crowd then began breaking street lamps and tried to sack a provision store. The proprietor shot one of the rioters with a gun, which increased the disturbance.

CROP SUMMARY.

A Rainless Week and Crops Generally Light.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 10.—The following is a summary of the weather bureau's bulletin of the crop conditions throughout the state for the week ending May 9th: This week has been almost without rain, only a few light showers having been reported along the coast and in the mountain districts of the western portions of the state. The weekly deficiency in all portions of the state equals the normal rainfall. The temperature has been normal or above the normal in the interior and below the normal along the coast. The difference has been quite marked between the coast and interior. Fog and low clouds with fresh west winds have prevailed along the coast.

A small amount of wheat will be harvested on irrigated land and summer fallow in foothill sections. Some elsewhere will be cut hay. Feed is scanty. Haying is in progress in many sections. Both hay and silage are light crops. Cherries are ripening nicely; the yield is good but the fruit is rather smaller than usual. Pears, apples and prunes are doing well and vines are generally reported as thrifty and loaded with grapes. In the fruit orchards irrigation is in full operation and where trees cannot be reached by irrigation ditch, the orchardists are hauling water.

THE VALLEY ROAD.

The First Train Will Enter Bakersfield Today.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 10.—The San Francisco and San Joaquin Valley Railroad Company's track at noon today was completed to within one mile of Bakersfield and tomorrow the force of track layers will complete the track into the town into the company's depot site. The first train of the company will therefore enter Bakersfield before tomorrow night, but the line will not be formally opened until May 27th.

IN THE CORTEZ.

Salmeron, the Republican Leader, Causes Trouble.

Catalanion Deputies Protest Against the Declaration of Martial Law.

MADRID, May 10.—9 p. m.—The chamber (lower house) had a prolonged sitting this evening with a view of passing the current political measures giving the government power to procure funds to continue the war.

Senor Salmeron, the Republican leader, alluded to the rumors of the Queen Regent's abdication, and declared the Republicans were ready to form a government forthwith.

His remarks evoked a storm of protests and Senor Salmeron was unable to proceed for fully ten minutes. Monarchists and Republicans shrieked at each other and banded threats.

The president's voice was completely drowned. When he finally obtained a hearing, the president, Marquis Vega de Armijo, requested Senor Salmeron to withdraw the censure.

Thereupon the president threatened to name him thrice if he continued his attacks upon the throne.

As a result of this censure and of the persistent monarchist interruptions, Senor Salmeron was compelled to辞职.

WAR MEASURES IN THE SENATE

Four of Them Are Passed.

Californians in Colombia Jails.

The Postoffice Appropriation Bill Carrying Appropriations of $99,000,000 is Passed.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—The house was in session today only fifty minutes, the early adjournment being due to no urgent measures of importance being before the house and to a general indisposition to take up minor matters.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Four war measures were passed by the senate today. One of them provided for carrying on the additional work in the adjutant general's office; the second authorized the enlistment of a volunteer signal corps, two-thirds of the members of which must be expert electricians or telegraphers; the third was the so-called "immune bill" passed by the house, and the fourth was a measure suspending the existing law so that additional hospital stowards can be appointed.

The postoffice appropriation bill, carrying appropriations which aggregate more than $99,000,000, was passed after a debate which has lasted for several days.

A determined effort was made by Mr. Butler of North Carolina to cut off the sum appropriated for the fast mail service between New York and Washington, Atlanta and New Orleans and to provide for two committees to investigate postal affairs, but it was unsuccessful, all amendments except those offered by the committee on appropriations being voted down.

After an extended and interesting debate the resolution submitting to the legislatures of the various states an amendment to the constitution of the United States changing the date of the beginning of the terms of President, Vice President and members of congress from the 4th of March to the 4th of May was adopted.

Mr. Sewell of New Jersey reported from the committee on military affairs a bill providing for the increased volume of work in the office of the Adjutant General of the Army. This bill provides for one Assistant Adjutant General with the rank of colonel and one with rank of major. The bill was passed.

From the military affairs committee Mr. Carter of Montana favorably reported and secured the passage of a bill providing for a volunteer signal corps. The measure authorizes the President to organize a volunteer signal corps for the existing war.

Mr. White of California introduced a resolution instructing the committee on foreign relations to forthwith investigate the cases of Harry E. Spring and Charles W. Nelson, citizens of the United States and residents of the State of California, who are under arrest in the Republic of Columbia and to inquire whether they have been detained unreasonably without trial and whether the diplomatic officers and agents of the United States in Columbia have made appropriate exertions to prepare their release or trial and to report by resolution or otherwise.

The resolution went over under the rules.

A joint resolution, proposing an amendment to the constitution of the United States, substituting the last Thursday in April for the 4th of March as the inauguration day of the President and vice-President and the beginning of terms of members of congress, senators and representatives was considered.

The author of the resolution, Mr. Hoar, made a brief explanation of the necessity of making the change proposed. Mr. Hoar pointed out the fact that inaugurations under the present arrangement were too often characterized by disagreeable weather, the nature of the weather involving danger to the health and lives of those who participated in the exercises.

The most important reason for the adoption of the amendment was that the time between the date congress convened in December and the 4th of March when the congress expired by limitation every two years was too short for the proper and decent consideration of the thirteen great appropriation bills and other measures of importance which must necessarily be considered during the short session of congress.

The resolution was passed by an aye and no vote, 39 to 10, receiving the necessary two-thirds vote.

Mr. Hawley secured the passage of a bill suspending certain provisions of the law so that hospital stewards to a number exceeding 100 may be appointed during the existing war.

Mr. Hawley also moved that the senate not concur in the house amendment to the bill providing a assistance to the inhabitants of Cuba and arms and ammunition for the Cuban insurgents. The motion was carried, and Messrs. Hawley, Carter and Gresham were named as conferees.

On motion of Mr. Quay of Pennsylvania, the Senate then, at 5 o'clock, went into executive session.

At 5:45 p.m. the Senate adjourned.

ARMY STAFF OFFICERS.

A Complaint That the South Has Been Slighted.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—There was some discussion by the Senate in executive session today because none of the nominations for staff officers of the army sent in by the President yesterday were from the South. Senator Monay raised the question when the reference of the nominations was made, and he and Senators Tate, Bacon and Lindsey all commented upon the fact. Replies were made by Senators Hoar, Carter and Wilson. The last two stated that the far western section of the country had failed to receive any recognition at the hands of the President in the matter of staff appointments.

Senator Hoar said there were still many other nominations to be made while he made no claim to be in the least the President's mouthpiece, he believed he would make an geographical distribution of the officers.

All of the nominations of staff officers were referred to the military committee.

HAWAIIAN ANNEXATION.

Army and Navy Officials Plead Strongly for It.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—The House Committee on Foreign Affairs met today to consider the Hawaiian annexation resolution, but finally deferred the vote until next Thursday. The delay was due to the request of the minority. The committee stands 11 to 14 in favor of annexation.

There was little done by the committee at this session, aside from the examination of Lieutenant General Schofield, U.S. A., retired, and Admiral John G. Walker, U.S. N., retired, both of whom warmly advocated annexation. Ex-Minister Loring A. Thurston of Hawaii was also present.

General Schofield was asked as to the cost of fortifying the islands and said he believed $500,000 would be all that was necessary for adequate fortifications.

Admiral Walker concurred in the views expressed by General Schofield. He said that the expedition now being organized by the government to go to the Philippines, would have to stop at Honolulu and it could not stop there as Hawaii was neutral, and that Hawaiian neutrality would be extremely injurious to the United States.

General Schofield said that if the expedition of the troops now being fitted up for the occupation of the Philippines should have to go straight through without stopping to re-load at Honolulu, which is about one-third the distance, the amount of extra coal that thus would have to be carried would displace approximately one-third of the cargo. The explanation of the strategic and economic importance of Hawaii to this country occupied almost the entire time of the session.

READY FOR CAMP.

The Sixth Regiment Boys to Enter Today.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 10.—These are the last days of the mastering of the volunteers. Soldiers in name and truth under the banner of the United States, with eyes facing to the Philippines, the whole quota of volunteers will be in camp by tomorrow afternoon.

Today the regiments of the examination were taken up. Major McCarthy and his assistants were putting the last stragglers through the medical ordeal, marking up their lists and statistics, talking over the hard work of the last week. The physical examination of the whole quota has now been completed. The doctors were at work until late last night completing the weighing and taping of the Sixth and Second.

The officers of the Sixth and Second had their medical examination at the Page-street armory today. Major Rice had the master roll of battery D of the heavy artillery battalion ready at noon today and Captain Carrington mustered them into the service in due form this afternoon. Major Rice inspected the Fontana warehouse this morning with a view to its suitability as a temporary barracks for his battalion. The four batteries will stay at the Market and Tenth street armory tonight, however, and go into their quarters at the war-houses tomorrow.

Captain Carrington was ready to muster in the men of the Sixth and Second regiments, now quartered at California Hall and the Page street armory, this morning, but was obliged to wait until the master captains had made out their muster rolls.

The troops will remain in their present quarters tonight, marching to the Presidio tomorrow morning, where they hope to be in camp by noon.

ODD FELLOWS MEET.

Opening of the Forty-Sixth Annual Session.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 10.—The forty-sixth session of the grand lodge of California, I.O.O.F., opened today. The session was called to order at 10 o'clock by Grand Master A. M. Drew. In the absence of Grand Chaplain F. G. Hitchcock, L. R. Alexander, F. G. M., officiated as grand chaplain. A recess was taken to allow the committee on credentials to report, after which a large number of past grandees were introduced, and the grand-lodge decree was conferred upon them. The reports of the grand officers were then received and referred to the committee on distribution.

Three subordinate lodges have been instituted and nine Rebekah lodges; four subordinate and one Rebekah lodge have consolidated; three lodges reconstituted and two have surrendered their charters.

A resolution exempting from dues and entitling to benefits all members who should enlist in the army or navy during the present war was presented and referred to a committee.

The grand secretary reported the existence of 349 lodges and 30,000 members.

Payments in Gold.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—The United States treasury began today paying out gold on the counter in lieu of currency. This will be continued indefinitely. The available cash balance on hand, including the $100,000,000 gold reserve, is $123,313,583. Of this amount $80,328,491 is free gold and the balance is made up of silver, treasury and United States notes.

Condition of the National Banks.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—The controller of the currency has issued a call for the condition of national banks at the close of business on May 5.

VALUES TUMBLE

Heavy Slump in Wheat Options.

July Loses 10 Cents a Bushel in Half an Hour.

CHICAGO, May 10.—Intense excitement ruled in the wheat pit market today from the start. Liverpool showed a decline at the opening of 10¢ a bushel for May and 2¢ for September. This was offset by a preliminary jump of 9¢ a bushel in July. But the second cables showed a slump in July also. This unlocked for procedure on the part of the English market caused a weak opening here. July began with declines of 2 to 3¢. Trades were on a range of $1.17 and $1.18.

The downward flight was checked temporarily at $1.17. Trade was narrow and ordinary orders were hard to execute. A quarter of an hour before the close a flood of long wheat broke loose. The feeling was based largely upon the presumption that today's government crop report might be bearish. Scalpurs ventured to put out short lines, July slumped in a couple of minutes from around $1.19 to $1.05. Most of the trades were a full cent apart. When the liquidation was exhausted shorts tried to even up and the market rushed again to $1.15, closing at $1.14, a net loss of 6¢. May sold between $1.73 and $1.85, closing 10¢ net higher at $1.85. September, which sold early at 93¢, tumbled to 88¢ and closed at 87¢.

Trade in corn was moderate. Fluctuations followed wheat on a small scale, July closing 1¢ to 3¢ lower.

The oats market shaped its course after wheat and corn. July closed with no loss of 3¢ to 4¢.

Nolets on the buying side of the market could be infused into provisions. Closing prices showed net losses of 1¢ in July pork and 2¢ to 3¢ lower for rice and lard.

NEW YORK, May 10.—The bears in wheat had a chance to retaliate today and did so with a vengeance, particularly in the last hour, when their persistent attacks upon the market resulted in a wholesale tumble of values, July losing nearly 10¢ a bushel in a half-hour's time. From the standpoint of fluctuations the market was by far the wildest scene in years. Speculative trade was not quite so feverish as yesterday, outsiders being generally absent, although there were heavy dealings in the last break. There were frequent changes in the market of half a cent a bushel between traders all day.

The immediate opening was 5¢ lower at $1.23 for July, dated on a severe re-action in the Liverpool market. This depression did not last long, however, as the crowd was very nervous and yielded easily to a strong bull movement which excited heavy covering and pushed July in quick steps up to $1.31, which was the top for the day. From that figure there was a steady downfall until July sold at $1.19. Then there was a quick re-action to $1.23, with $1.22 the closing figure. On the curb further selling pulled the price down to $1.20. The feature in May was a late advance to $1.31, exceeding the previous high point by one cent a bushel, the close being the top for the day and 6¢ higher than last night, although July and the later months closed with a net loss of 4¢ to 6¢ per bushel.

To Cure a Cold in One Day Take Larvative Bromo Quinine Tablets. Baker & Colson refund the money if it fails to cure. 25¢. The genuine has 1, B. Q. on each tablet.

Bibles, Prayer Books And Hymnals, a good assortment at South & Fenton's.

WELL, Sampson has Porto Rico to try his metal on if the Spanish fleet did sail back to Spain.

It may be well to warn an excited public that all dark skinned persons are not Spaniards.

If this were a baseball game instead of a war, the Spanish navy would be credited with the first home run.

Spain is, indeed, in a pitiable plight, but she deserves no pity. Her infamies have long cried for vengeance and the American nation has answered the cry.

Fresno's baseball team has finally struck a winning gait, and the Republican registers the prediction that it will keep it up if the present organization is maintained.

If the Spanish forces maintain their defiant attitude at Manila the California volunteers may have something more interesting to do than merely to occupy the Philippines.

If, when the opportunity is presented, the Christian powers will do with Turkey what the United States is doing with Spain, this will soon become a better world for civilized people to live in.

Arrive all the apprehension in regard to the safety of the Oregon, that fine fighting craft does not appear to have been in any great danger from the Spanish fleet. The Oregon did not have Spain in its itinerary.

Morons, wives or sweethearts who want to write to their loved ones at the front should address their letters to the "Ireadio postoffice, California," stating the company and regiment to which the addressee belongs. Of course this is only until the troops are moved to some other point.

RAISIN growers should attend the mass meeting on Saturday and be prepared to take decisive action in support of the plan for organization. The success achieved by the raisin growers upon the line of action proposed by the committee is sufficient evidence of its practicability.

The Fresno baseball club redeemed itself by defeating the Gilt Edges at Sacramento last Sunday. It is evident that the managers have at last succeeded in bringing together nine good men and true and no further changes should be made in the team unless absolutely necessary.

FARMERS near Redwood City are said to be pulling their hay, so that none of the precious stuff will be wasted. At $20 a ton hay is hay, even to the roots. Enough good, clean straw was burned and otherwise wasted in Fresno county last year to have carried most of the stock through the present season. Had it been stacked and saved it would have been worth thousands of dollars at the present time.

The San Francisco Bulletin has added a new double supplement How press to its mechanical department and is now one of the best equipped newspapers in the country. The Bulletin has progressed rapidly under its present management and there are very few evening papers in the United States that can compare with it. Its great increase in circulation proves that its efforts to sufficiently serve the public are appreciated.

PROFESSOR PLATZMANN, of philistine fame has come forth from the retirement in which he was so admirable and is again making a noise with his mouth, and the result is a fusillade of abuse from the eloquent thespian, Professor Corbett. Fortunately for the public the yellow papers are so engrossed with the war between this country and Spain that poster type headlines and full-page pictures of the jawing match are not likely to result from the present outbreak.

Since the Examiner is setting forth the demerits of some of the applicants for the Brigadier Generalship, why not make a thorough job of it and begin at the beginning and go "down the line"? Why does it waste so much time and initiative on Dickenson and Otis when the absurd pretensions of Governor Budd are such an inviting butt for ridicule and sarcasm? The bare idea of Budd's being made a Brigadier is enough to provoke a smile or a sneer, as a person may happen to feel about it.

At the recent meeting of the Populist state central committee a resolution was passed which virtually provided that parties desiring to form with the People's Party must first adopt a platform acceptable to the latter. This is a pretty stiff requirement, but the Democrats apparently consider themselves in such dire need of votes that it is not improbable that they will comply with it. It will be a bitter humiliation, but not so distressing that the heat of office cannot relieve it.

The Examiner prints a dispatch from Washington in which the President is reported to have expressed himself as follows to members of the California delegation in congress, who called on him with regard to the appointment of a brigadier-general in this state: "Your state will not get a brigadier; you do not seem to be able to agree upon anybody." The same old story, you see. We're not able to agree upon anybody.

If there is a chance of one of our cities being honored with an important appointment, influences are immediately set to work to destroy that chance. Pressure is brought to bear upon our representatives at Washington with the result that the delegation is divided and several men are recommended for the place and California is left in the cold. When will our "statesmen" learn a little wisdom?

Tax Populists of Tulare county met in convention on Monday, nominated a full county ticket and adopted the following resolution relative to fusion:

We are unalterably opposed to fusion with any other political party, and hereby pledge our delegates to the People's Party State convention to be held at Sacramento, July 12th, to refuse to affiliate with such a convention should it decide to fuse, or "co-operate" with any other political party by any agreement looking to or intended for a division of the offices between the Populists and any other political party.

There is not the slightest doubt that the above voices the sentiment of a majority of the Populists of Fresno county, but the leaders have disavowed their former declarations and decided differently. It remains to us what the Populists of the county will do when given the opportunity to speak for themselves.

It is difficult to account for the opinion the European press held prior to that affair at Manila that American man-of-war's men were incompetent and could fall easy victims to the Spaniards. There is nothing in the history of our navy to warrant such an opinion—indeed, every page in that history is a glorious one, but perhaps European editors don't care for American history and had never read of the achievements of our navy. Again, they may be very well acquainted with our sea record, but inspired by envy, determined to discredit it and malign our sailors. But whatever the cause, their attitude is discreditable. Some of them still withhold praise from Dewey and try to deprecate his great feat.

The people of County Mayo, Ireland, according to a dispatch, have resolved to start a national appeal to the President and Congress of the United States praying for the intervention of the government of the republic to obtain self-government for Ireland and a cessation of famine and over-taxation. It is evident that Uncle Sam will not lack work in the knight errantry line if he accepts every job that is offered him. However, he will require a long breathing spell and after that some heavy training before he will be able to doify any and all oppresses of distressed miseries.

RANDOM REMARKS.

The Spanish fleet probably returned to Cadiz to lay in some courage.

It was quite natural for the Spanish and German sailors to fraternize at Cadiz. Tamales and beer go well together.

The name of the Spanish admiral at Manila has been given as Montijo, Mota and Montijo, but none of these is right. It is "Dennis."

It is stated that the Bradley Martins, who bought their daughter a titled Englishman, intend leaving the United States for good—for the good of the United States, probably.

A San Francisco paper says that Tom Sharkey will become an actor. No he won't either. He has been trying all along to act the part of a prize fighter, but has made a miserable failure of it. It'll do no better in other roles.

If Professor L. Du Pont Syle of Berkeley gets off any more rhymes like that in the foregoing couplet I'll have to take back the good things I said about him recently. Phillipine is as easy to rhyme as beer. If he had made a noise in trying to rhyme Dewey, it would have been pardonable, but Phillipine—don't let it occur again, Professor.

A useful citizen of Tacoma has been sent to a wheelless world by a female scrocher. He was riding a bicycle in the staid manner appropriate to a member of the Tacoma school board when he was run down. He was picked up unconscious and died a few hours later, while the female scrocher is reported to have received a severe cut on the head. This latter, of course, is a newspaper exaggeration. The head of the scrocher is the least vulnerable and most worthless part of that animal, and that is why it careers along highways and byways with capes lowered. It is doubtful if the female scrocher abroad was ever bruised. That she was a genuine scrocher was proved by her taking herself off as fast as she could without inquiring regarding the extent of her victim's injuries or seeking to render him aid. Only a scrocher is capable of such meanness.

Indians on the Warpath. Denver, May 10.—A special to the News from Nogales, Ariz., says: Word was received in Nogales from Fort Huachuca that 1000 Indians, composed of Apaches, Papagos and Yaquis had banded together and were moving in the direction of Nogales. The Citizens' Home Guard and Company G of the Arizona militia were immediately notified. The streets were patrolled all night and guards were stationed on the surrounding hill tops to give warning of the approach of the Indians. No disturbance occurred during the night, but a sharp lookout will be kept today and tonight. Another company of the Home Guards will patrol the streets to prevent a surprise similar to the Yaqui outbreak which occurred a few nights ago.

SUN'S WAR ON EARTH.

FEARFUL RAVAGES OF HEAT IN AUSTRIAN COLONIES.

Many People Die From Effects of the Terrible Weather—Bush Fires Destroy Many Large Farms—Clouds of Blinding Smoke Fill the Air—Typhoid Fever Rages.

Disaster and desolation beyond description have overtaken two colonies of Australia. Passengers arriving at Vancouver, B. C., by the Ascania the other day, blooming in straw hats and blazers, tell a startling story of the terrible heat rays which are withering up a continent. At noon in Melbourne, Victoria, the sun focused a withering ray on the city. Water in the wells sunk into the parched earth, streams dried up and rivers visibly sank as in a falling tide. Hysterical women proclaimed the end of the world. Men, women and children gasped for breath as they prayed to be delivered from a horrible end. The weakest were dying and did not see the dense, opaque vapor which, as the day waned, rolled in from the burning forests and shut out the scorching sun.

Another evil was upon them. The air was thick and mucky, alive with blinding cicadas. Men would have suffocated or gone blind had they not shot themselves away from the overpowering influence of the mountain of smoke that settled over the city and blotted it out even from the sun's hateful light. But the darkness was worse than the light, and the air was thicker to breathe. Life was soon to come, nature could do no more, but the trial by fire was not over. The elements must kill a few more. Only the strongest must survive. Down from the sky above came a thunderbolt, then another and another. Several buildings were wrecked, and as the people cautiously peeped from their houses the stifling, overpowering smoke fumes were gone and a blinding sheet of rain was falling from the black vapor that had lifted above them. They reached into the rain and doused and shouted for joy. Nature had decided not to destroy Melbourne.

The darkest hour had passed, and after that rain the atmosphere was worth $1,000,000 a minute to those poor souls and an hour's respite prepared them for the next period of suffering. The mortality was very large. Besides deaths from heat 250 cases of typhoid fever broke out, with a large percentage of deaths. In the country matters are much worse. Miles of farms are burned and in New Zealand, as well as in Victoria, bush fires have blotted out whole townships. Settlers are flocking to the towns in hundreds and thousands, half naked and terror stricken. A few actual experiences chronicled by the easy going Sidney Mail and Australian Telegraph show more truth than fiction.

A Wellington correspondent says bush fires are destroying everything from Hoonville's Gully to Burnside, over a magnificent farming country. The fire jumped from bush to farmhouses, 600 feet, defying the efforts of farmers to stay its course. The fire became eclipsed by the dense volumes of smoke. A Methodist camp meeting was overtaken by fire and the people, mostly women, fled for their lives. Five minutes after the 600 tents were deserted they were in flames. The people ran for miles till they reached a sleep station, where all the women took refuge in a sun and dairy pond and milked the cows all day long as the fire raged around them. The men went to town. The women were left behind. When rescued, they had slipped their clothing off, dipped it in milk and spread it on the roof. In the meantime thousands of homes were being licked up by the flames.

Growth continue to come into town blind with smoke, being badly burned. Half of those who reach the town fall into a dead faint from reaction, some never to rise again. Many refused to leave their destroyed homes. One man sent his family to a place of safety, walked back to his burning house and dropped at the door.

Heartrending reports of suffering come from all over the colony. Thousands are arriving in the towns, almost naked and terribly blistered. The most awful experiences are from Poowong. All Poowong—north, south and west—is gone. The flames came quickly, jumping like live, fury furies from bush to bush, tree to tree and house to house. The residents left all and fled to save their lives. In some cases flight was impossible. Hundreds of children were lowered into wells in tubs, and those who escaped drowning were saved from the fire. W. G. Pratt dragged his mother-in-law, aged 80, through three miles of bush and saved her. W. Treadwell, his wife, son and daughter, got into a dugout and staid there all night up to their necks in water. When taken out, they were parboiled, as the fire had heated the water to boiling point. G. Pratt and two men covered themselves with wet sacks. They are alive, but all blind. All who are alive are wandering about half-burned and maimed. Scores of families tell the same story.

They raced with flames, but they dropped from exhaustion. When half unconscious, they would again be aroused by the advancing flames sweeping upon them with the roar of a dozen tornadoes, only to struggle on till reduced by relief parties with horses. Thousands of people were rescued in burning buildings by a band of 500 heroes who organized to save lives. Jambulla and Koubumba were entirely annihilated, and in a score of other districts the scene of desolation baffles description.

The last dispatches state the flames are now under control. Ships cannot move in the smoke, and thousands of rockets are being sent up for ships that may be feeling their way through the dense smoke, half a mile high, that stretches over the water. As the Arctic left an attempt was made to enumerate the dead and missing in both colonies. Chicago Tribune.

Physical Training as Colleges for Women. Some surprise may be excited by the statement that at the present time the most painstaking and satisfactory work is being done in the college for women, but it is probably true. The college offers as a rule more alive to the importance of the department, the members are few if any exceptions graduate of normal schools or gymnasium which require two years of study, and the disturbing element of athletics does not enter so largely into competition with efforts at systematic physical training.

At the Woman's College of Baltimore the system is purely Swedish and the instruction is given by two graduates of the Royal Normal School of Gymnastics in Stockholm. The same system is employed, though less inflexibly, at Smith College. Bryn Mawr and Vassar have a combination of individual work and class instruction with light apparatus, making most of the former. The work at Mount Holyoke is somewhat the same, but more varied. At Wellesley athletics receive a relatively larger share of attention. —E. L. Leonard in Appleton's Popular Science Monthly.

The Bachelor Girl.

"She is wise in one respect, in this bachelor girl," Ruth Ashmore writes in the Ladies' Home Journal. "She has learned the art of gathering years gracefully. She appreciates, as she loses her youth, that she must pay more regard to her appearance and that in life's picture she must always be a figure that looks well. Here the bachelor girl rises superior to the old maid, for with all the old maid's gentleness she was a bit inclined toward dowdiness.

The bachelor girl impresses you, when you meet her, with her naturalness. Perhaps, as you grow to know her well, you may wish that her natural manner did not tend toward brusqueness, but at least she is truthful. She is a woman of business, and she is gradually learning that to succeed, alike in business and in society, she must follow the example of her brother and not carry her weekday worries or joys into her social life.

She must learn the art of being a grab or a butterfly as time and place demand. She is fond of pleasure, and being healthy and happy she is kind and charitable."

An Accomplished Woman.

Mrs. Milward Adams is one of the many Chicago literary women who can talk equally well about books or outdoor exercise. She is an enthusiast on woods, the rifle and pack ponies, and can relish a slice of bacon under a pine tree in Mountain Fully as much as a coarse dinner in town, or eat eggs from the shell on the banks of a wild creek, or walk along a ring where but few men and no white women have ever before set foot.

She goes into the intricacies with Mr. Adams in quest of big game and can sleep in a blanket under a canvas and laugh at the howls of wolves and feel comfortable because her rifle is within easy touch. A proceeding like this would not have been proper ten years ago. It would not have been considered womanly or fashionable. It would have been avoided as interfering with dainty or small talk of the drawing room or complexion or other trifles which was rapidly making of womanhood more sawdust dollhood. It now has brains and muscle and health and common sense. —Chicago Letter.

An Avalanche

Of good things this week. Like the constant roll of the ocean breakers, we are continually throwing our bargain spindrift over the community—brilliant price offerings that are never equalled, qualities that always tell and values that no competitor can offer. These are the methods by which our splendid stores have achieved their greatness. These are our methods of today.

DEWEY'S RECORD

Not a Stranger to Hard Fighting.

Fought Under Farragut at New Orleans.

From the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Commander Dewey's record is that of a fighter. His record during the civil war is full of gallantry. Yet those who know him for the past few years during his residence in Washington say that it is difficult for them to imagine him as the hero of such a terrific engagement as that in the harbor of Manila. He was extremely popular in Washington society, and his fondness for society life, his elegant manners, and his seeming inclination to take life easy and to enjoy all the good things in it gave the impression to those who did not know the real man that he was something of a dilettante.

He is slightly under 60 years of age, but is so well preserved that he would not be taken for more than 52 or 53. He is a little under the medium height, stockily built, with broad, heavy-set shoulders. He has sunny, black eyes, gray hair and mustache. Always suave, there is at the same time evidence of great determination in his character. He is one of those men who, while mild and gentle in his ways, leaves the impression that he is a man of thorough knowledge and of splendid reserve force.

"I could never imagine Dewey getting rattled under any circumstances," was the remark of a man who knew him well during his residence in Washington.

He was an especial favorite at the Army and Navy Club, which, being a widower, he frequented a great deal while in Washington. It was characteristic of the man that he always appeared at the club in the evenings in full dress. It is said that he sometimes changed his clothes as often as three times a day. A friend of is said today that he was certain the Commodore had at least twenty-five suits of clothes. He was always elegantly and faultlessly dressed.

A PROPHETIC POEM.

He was also one of the governors of the Metropolitan Club, the other swell club of the capital. When he received his orders to command the Asiatic squadron the members of his club gave him a farewell dinner. At this dinner Colonel Archibald Hopkins proposed a poetic toast to him, which, in view of the Manila engagement, seemed prophetic and well worthy of reproduction. It was as follows:

Pull all your glasses full tonight.
The wine is off the shelf,
And if it is not, let it fight.
We pledge the Commodore.

Through days of storm, through days of calm,
On broad Pacific seas;
At anchor of the Isles of Palm,
Or with the Japanese.

Ashore, about, on deck, below,
Or where our buildin' afloat;
To back a friend or break a foe,
We pledge the Commodore.

We know our honor'll be maintained,
Our rights respected and maintained,
Whatever power doth.

And when he takes the homeward tack,
Beneath an Admiral's flag,
We'll hail the day that brings him back,
And have another jag.

Commodore Dewey has long been a widower, his wife, who was a daughter of Governor Goodwin of New Hampshire, having died about twenty years. He has one son, George Goodwin Dewey, who graduated at Princeton in the class of 1890, and is now engaged in business in New York.

FAMILIAR WITH SHIPS.

Few men in the navy were more familiar with ships than he, although he was not distinctly a scientific officer. He always kept his ships neat and in perfect order, and was always ready, as a prominent naval officer said last evening, to light them. He came to Washington in 1889 as chief of the bureau of equipment and recruiting, the bureaus of which Commodore Royal B. Bradford is at present the efficient head. He served for four years in that capacity with the rank of Commodore, and when Mr. Cleveland came in for the second term, was appointed on the light house board, it being his second service in connection with that bureau. When Admiral Solferino was ordered to the command of the Mediterranean squadron, Commodore Dewey was made president of the Board of Inspection and Review succeeding Capt. Rodgers. As president of that board for two years Commodore Dewey had opportunity to familiarize himself in every way with the qualities of our modern vessels.

For some years his health has not been the best, as he had a delicate operation performed upon his liver when he was on the Asiatic station in the latter '80s. He had recovered thoroughly by the last autumn, and desired further sea duty before his retirement, which will come in about two years. He was, therefore, ordered to command the Asiatic squadron, having some time in the early fall been promoted to the full rank of Commodore. This was the first time he ever had a flag of his own as a naval officer.

CIVIL WAR RECORD.

Commodore Dewey is not a stranger to hard sea fighting. He was in many a hot naval engagement during the civil war, and his bravery and ability won him rapid promotion during the strife. He entered the naval academy on September 23, 1851, and graduated four years later. He was first attached to the frigate Wabash of the Mediterranean squadron, where he remained a year, and upon returning was transferred to the Mississippi in the West Gulf Squadron, upon which he served from 1861 to 1863. It was during this time that the squadron was engaged in the capture of New Orleans, thirty-six years ago, and it is doubtful if the fight with the Spanish fleet yesterday was more severe than that memorable engagement. Commodore Dewey was then a lieutenant. The Mississippi was then under command of Melanchton Smith, and just as the end of the battle of New Orleans appeared in sight, the confederate ship Manassas came up at full speed to attack the

MUNYON'S

Unseen fleet. Admiral Farragut directed the Mississippi to turn and run her down. She obeyed, but within a few yards of the enemy's boat the Mississippi turned and ran ashore. The Mississippi poured two broadsides upon her and sent her to the bottom of the river, a total wreck.

The Mississippi, while trying to run the batteries of Port Hudson, May 21, 1863, grounded and had to port. In spite of the desperate efforts of the crew, she could not be saved, and the enemy, getting the range, poured shell after shell into her hull. Captain Smith ordered her fired, and the crew made their escape in the boats. After the destruction of the Mississippi Lieutenant Dewey was assigned to the steamboat Agawam, of the North Atlantic blockade fleet, and made two attacks on Fort Fisher, one in December, 1864, and the other in January, 1865. On March 28 he was commissioned Lieutenant Commander, and served upon the old Kezar, that was wrecked subsequently on Rondador reef. At the close of the war he went aboard the Colorado, the flagship of the European squadron, and remained upon her until 1867.

For two years thereafter he did shore duty, being assigned to the naval academy. From there he was placed in command of the Narragansett, in Pacific service, from 1870 to 1871, and was again assigned to shore duty a year later at the torpedo station. He was made Commander April 18, 1873, and was in charge of the Narragansett in Pacific survey until 1874, when he was appointed lighthouse inspector for three years, and then became secretary of the board until 1882. He commanded the Juniors of the Atlantic squadron from 1882 to 1883, and was promoted to Captain in September, 1884, commanding the Dolphin in the same year. He was then transferred to the Peascod and to the European station until 1885.

PAINE'S APOLOGY

A Correspondent Recalls Unpleasant Memories.

Editor REPUBLICAN.—The chairman of the Populist county central committee, H. L. Paine, Esq., apologizes in last evening's Expositor for having waited with the boss of the local Democracy, in a distribution of nominations for county offices among their mutual friends, to the exclusion of other parties and factions, the said apology being extended to the Silver Republicans in particular.

Mr. Paine's regrets are doubtless sincere, at least as much as were his middle-of-the-road convictions, which were so gratuitously stirred during the winter months. The gentleman said in his communication: "I wish to say that both Democrats and Populists would gladly have recognized the Silver Republicans in the allotment of offices had there been any authorized Silver Republican organization in the county through which to make known their wishes."

Now Mr. Paine is well acquainted with several active and prominent Silver Republicans, with whom he could have consulted had he so desired. If I am not mistaken Judge Nourse was chairman of the reception committee and presided at the great demonstration in honor of Hon. W. J. Bryan, and Mr. Parker is entitled to the honor of inducing the great free silver orator, Mr. Towne, to stop in Fresno long enough to deliver a speech. But when it comes to consultation (and listing candidates in advance of convention) neither of these gentlemen are swift enough company for Mr. Paine. Hers again Mr. Paine's regrets are doubtless sincere, at least as sincere as his support of the People's Party nominated for County Auditor four years ago.

The Silver Republicans have at least been sincere. They believe in a principle. They are not willing to barter that principle for one measly place on a plato ticket. They are not asking for anything. But there are those among our number who plainly see that discord among the several bimetallic organizations will result in a continued postponement of bimetallism in the United States. The bimetallic viewer must be very thin upon Populist and Democratic leaders, when they appear anxious to lose sight of everything else but the chance to gain a few county offices. Corrupt or suspicious actions, barrier and trade of prospective positions, and direct promises to "take care" of certain would-be party candidates in case election is successful, will not add materially to the strength of Mr. Foote's and Mr. Paine's combination.

Another feature of this combination which commands itself to the friends of the two bosses is that each has staked himself for a position, the former being not at all averse to the place of Assistant District Attorney, and the latter thinks his military experience ripe enough to command at least the spine of the court house.

Now, Mr. Editor, I do not assume to speak for all the Silver Republicans in Fresno county, even though they may not number over seventeen, as reported by some of the fusionists who have assumed the grave responsibility of speaking for the Democratic or Populist party, but for myself alone I wish to say that the course of Messrs. Foote, Paine, etc., does not inspire either the confidence or support of true bimetallists.

Sprouting Potato Seed.

A writer in the New England Farmer tells that the most unsuccessful growers sprout potato seed as follows: From six to seven weeks before it is time to plant in the field the potatoes are cut in the usual manner, spread thinly in a dry open frost, where they remain until quite dry, say for three days. They are then placed in boxes of sand as closely as possible, the sand being dampened wet—and one inch in depth. These sets evenly over the whole surface and then covered with sand an inch in depth. Place the boxes in a light airy room where the temperature is from 45 degrees at night to 65 degrees in the daytime. The sprouts will soon push forth and grow just in proportion as light, heat and moisture are afforded them.

A slow growth is much to be preferred, in the stems will be much stronger and more vigorous after they are set in the field. To that end a low temperature, but little moisture, free circulation of air and all the light possible are essential. The boxes are placed one above the other in trucks, with spaces between of six inches.

THE DUTY OF CATHOLICS

As Americans They Must Be Loyal.

Text of the Archiepiscopal Letter.

President McKinley and the Cabinet Praised For Their Forbearance.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—The archbishops of the Catholic church in the United States have agreed on a letter addressed to the clergy and laity of the country. The letter bears on the war with Spain and will be read in all the churches on Sunday. It is indorsed by Manager Martineau, the apostolic delegate, and is as follows:

"To the Clergy and Laity of the Catholic Church of the United States, Greeting:

"The events that have succeeded the blowing up of the battleship Maine and the sacrifice of 260 innocent victims, the patriotic cause of the United States, have culminated in war with Spain and our own beloved country.

"Whatever may have been the individual opinions of Americans prior to the declaration of war, there can now be no two opinions as to the duty of loyal Americans. A resort to arms was determined upon by the executive of the nation with the advice of both houses of congress, and after consultation with his cabinet officers, but not until every effort had been exhausted to bring about an honorable and peaceful solution of our difficulties with Spain. The patient wisdom, the dignified forbearance, the subdued firmness of President McKinley during the trying time that intervened between the destruction of the Maine and the declaration of war, all praise, and should command the admiration of every true American. We, the members of the Catholic church, are true Americans, and as such are loyal to our country and our flag, and obedient to the highest and supreme authority of the nation.

"We are not engaged in a war of section against section or of state against state, but we are united as one man against one enemy and a common foe. We are taught by our holy church that love of country is next to love of God, a duty imposed upon us by all law, human and divine. Then it is our duty to labor and to pray for the temporal and spiritual welfare of the heroic soldiers who are battling for our beloved country. Let us faithfully hug the God of battles to crown their arms on land and sea with victory and triumph, and to stay unnecessary effusion of blood, and spendily to restore peace to our beloved land and people."

"To this end we direct that on and after the receipt of this circular and until the close of this war every priest shall, in his daily mass, pray for the restoration of peace by glorious victory for our flag. We also direct that prayers for the brave soldiers and sailors that fall in battle be said every day after mass."

"We pray that God may bless and preserve our country in this great crisis and speedily bring victory, honor and peace to all our people."

The Baccarat Scandal Revived.

LONDON, May 10.—The engagement is announced of William Angus Drago Montagu, ninth duke of Manchester to Joan, daughter of Charles Henry Wilson, member of parliament for West Hull, the well known ship owner. The future duchess of Manchester is a niece of the Wilsons, who came into prominence at the time of the Tranty Crott baccarat scandal, which caused the retirement from the army of Lieutenant Colonel Sir William Gordon Cunningham of the Scots Fusiliers guards, following an unsuccessful suit for slander brought against Mr. and Mrs. Lytton Green and others who were guests of Arthur Wilson at Tranty Crott, in September 1890.

The Wool Market,

BOSTON, May 10.—Although the wool market is very quiet and sales are small, there has been more calls noted and considerable inquiry is noted. The feature of the market has been the demand for suitable army contracts. Quotations:

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Statesmen Who Ride Bicycles—How the President Made a Boy Happy. Mrs. Sampson's Fashion.

[Special Correspondence.]

The season for bringing out congressional bicycles is at hand. Representative Moody, the most athletic man on the Bay State delegation, has his wheel put and every fair day rolls leisurely down the avenue. Mr. Moody "takes" the hills, although he ascended to the capitol rather slowly for a few days. Representative Alexander of New York whirls around to the departments on his congressional rounds mounted on his bicycle. He turns the corners of streets with a rush and in his busy course sometimes runs in danger of being grabbed up by the bicycle cops.

Representative Shafroth of Colorado is one of the new riders. He was charmed with the idea of riding, and when lost in Chicago he looked around and found a bargain in wheels that he immediately took up with. It was purchased only for learning to ride, however, and was not entirely a good looking bicycle. In fact, it looked so old and decrepit that Mr. Shafroth thought it entirely safe to leave it at the capitol without being looked. The other day somebody rode away with it, and Mr. Shafroth is left without a bicycle.

Politics Makes Strange Bedfellows.

Politics, it is said, makes strange bedfellows. Bicycling makes stranger companions. Every afternoon a trio of senators leave the capitol together on their wheels. There is Chandler, partisanship Republican, sarcasm, pepper, always running a prod into the southern Democrat in the matter of honest elections.

Then there is Bacon of Georgia, tall, dignified, careful as to dress and speech and ready to do or die for the cause of free silver. And last comes Tillman, wearing former clothes, a broad-brimmed hat, rough and ready in all his words and actions.

Off the three go together. Chandler puffs with nervous energy, adjusting his eyeglasses as he goes along; Bacon working with grave deliberation, and the one-eyed Tillman running his wheel in total disregard of all established rules and even falling off occasionally when he guides his machine into the rut of the curv track. Great dolts like these three senators have as they glide along! Sometimes the sarcastic Chandler gets too gay and the outspoken Tillman gets too obstreperous. Then the peace loving Bacon silently steers his wheel between his two colleagues, and up his broad shoulders the overhanging comments baroniously fall.

Senators as Jokers.

On a recent afternoon Mr. Carter of Montana rose to make a brief statement, when Senator Turpin moved that the senate go into executive session. As this motion had precedence, Senator Carter appealed to his colleague to withdraw it until he had made his statement, but Mr. Turpin declined, and the doors were closed. Some roundabout business was transacted, during which time Mr. Turpin became engaged in conversation with a colleague. Noticing his abstraction, Senator Carter moved that the senate adjourn. The motion was carried, and nobody knows yet what business Mr. Turpin intended to bring up.

The President Makes a Boy Happy.

An 11-year-old lad while studying his history lesson recently learned that the coming Saturday would be President McKinley's birthday and thought it would be a nice thing to send the chief magistrate a birthday card. The boy was scared and waited until the following good advice: "In whatever station you are, God has called you to till the place, and you should do your duty."

Saturday's mail brought the boy a White House letter addressed to Mr. —. It was from Secretary Porter, who had been directed by the president to acknowledge the receipt of the birthday token and to convey the president's thanks for the remembrance.

The youth was delighted with the attention, but was disappointed that the president should think he was a man, and was anxious to rectify the mistake.

The president was to leave for Philadelphia at 10 o'clock Monday morning, but notwithstanding the pressure of official and private matters the youth was admitted to the president's room when he presented himself about 9 o'clock that day.

As long as he lives he will never forget that audience. The president thanked him for his thoughtfulness and presented him with the rose which he wore in his buttonhole. It was a happy boy who returned home and told of his success.

President Taylor's Daughter's Pension.

Senator Vest has received a letter from Mrs. Letitia Tyler Semple, a daughter of former President Taylor and now one of the inmates of the Louis house, requesting that Congress give her an increase of pension. The letter, which is a very lengthy one, has been printed by the Senate committee on pensions, that body having voted to increase her pension of $8 a month to $60 a month. She refers to the pension granted last year to Mrs. Daudridge, a daughter of President Taylor, explaining that she and Mrs. Daudridge stand in exactly the same relation to former chief magistrates.

"I ask that you obtain for me the same increase of pension that Mrs. Daudridge receives," writes Mrs. Semple. "At all points we stand alike, and that I represent four presidents. James Monroe, William Henry Harrison, John Tyler and Benjamin Harrison were cousins through the Armitoads and Tylers of Virginia."

Mrs. Semple adds that her necessity must plead for her, as her pension of $8 a month for the service of her husband in the Mexican war is her only income and mentions the fact that after the death of her mother in September, 1842, she assumed the duties of the lady of the White House and performed them to the satisfaction of all.

A Spanish Spy Captured in Fresno!

Yesterday about nine o'clock in the afternoon a suspicious looking individual, apparently Spanish, was observed on the top of the Kates-Goldstein building on J street with a spyglass and a notebook. The Spaniard, as he afterwards proved to be, was evidently scrutinizing the brick foundations of the new furniture warehouse being erected for the Parker Ly and Co. Parker Lyon noted the suspicious actions, and with that ready instinct which has made him the Furniture King of the San Joaquin valley, grasped the situation in a flash.

Hastily detailing Kennedy as chief of staff and Williams as adjutant-general, Lyon threw out a skirmish line and made a flank movement on the roof, capturing the Spanish spy without shedding a drop of blood.

The Spaniard endeavored to swallow smoky memoranda of drawings, etc., when captured, but on being taken into the furniture store, the sight of the immense and elegant stock so amazed him that he involuntarily opened his mouth and dropped the plans.

On being searched, a through ticket to Madrid was found and enough correspondence to prove him to be a special emissary of the Spanish government detailed to study the land fortifications and water approaches to Fresno.

Secretary Alger of the War Department has been notified, and the prisoner is now confined to a $40 easy chair in the furniture store, he is in imminent and a state of coma, caused by eating ham sandwiches sent over from Ed. Schwarz' beer emporium. It is feared the Spanish government contemplated an attack on the railroads to uproot the vines and create a market for Spanish raisins.
